Week 2

Work

2.1 Faculty report

A faculty report was suggested by Prof. Johannes Knops as an annual summary, which serves as a guideline for the work. The structure of the report is illustrated in Fig. 2.1.

A template of this report is available in the R package “xjtlu”.

2.2 Teaching

- Marking and Moderation

2.3 Collaboration

Research Office produced a video about how to draft appropriate technology agreement when starting cooperation with external enterprise or other organizations in XJTLU. The video can be found here.

Week 3

Library

3.1 Location and opening hours

Location: Central Building, Level 1, 3 – 10, 22,000 m², 2,800 seats and 300 computer terminals.

Opening hours:

- Monday- Friday: 8:00 – 22:00
- Saturday and Sunday: 9:00 – 22:00

For summer and winter holidays, the opening hours will be pre-announced via e-mail and posted at the entrance of the library.

3.2 Borrow books

Search books on <http://opac.lib.xjtlu.edu.cn>

With your university ID card, books can be checked out or returned either at self-service machines on the 1st, 4th and 8th floors, or at the Library Circulation Desk on the 3rd floor.

For CDs, DVDs, course reserves and reserved books, please return them to the Library Circulation Desk on the 3rd floor.

Academic staff can keep unlimited books for 180 days, DVDs and short loan for 3 days, and graded readers for 7 days. Academic staff have unlimited renewals on borrowed books. T

3.3 Remote access

- Tutorial: videos on how to access library services and resources remotely

3.4 Book purchase

If you would like our library to buy some books for your teaching or research, there are three ways you could choose:

1. The library buys books for you. Fill in the Purchase_Request_Form.xls with your book info, and send the form to the library officer. No need to print it out or scan it. The Excel form is fine. The library officer will forward it to our library. The purchase takes one or two months. More details can be found in the Policy on Print Book Collection Development.
2. You buy books by yourself and get reimbursement from the library. Before you buy books, you have to fill the Staff_Reimbursement_Request_Form.xls, and send it to the library officer. You will get the reimbursement, and you have to bring the books to the library for the library stamps. More details can be found in the Library Policy on Staff Self-Purchase Reimbursement.
3. You could also buy books at the Eslite (Chengpin) Bookstore, Phoenix (Fenghuang) Bookstore, Xinhua

Bookstore in Guanqian Street, which have some agreements with our library. The payment will go to our library directly.

The books bought in these three ways will be stored in our library.

- How to Suggest a Purchase
- Policy on Print Book Collection Development
- Library Policy on Staff Self-Purchase Reimbursement

3.5 Textbooks

Module leaders should provide accurate and complete information (including ISBN, title, author, publisher) for the textbook via e-Bridge within the specified deadline.

Module leaders/conveners are entitled to free textbook desk copies from Textbook and Publication Division by the following two ways:

- Collecting it from Library in person one week before new semester begins;

- Contacting publishers directly if the Desk Copy is needed before the time stated above.

There are three categories of textbook: Mandatory Textbook, Optional Textbook and Reference Textbook.

1. MANDATORY: A required book in either print or electronic format for a module that students are obligated to purchase.
2. OPTIONAL: A book in print that students can choose to purchase or not.
3. REFERENCE: A book in print that is considered additional or recommended reading by academic staff and is only purchased for Library's collection where it can be offered for loan.

3.6 Group Study Room and Training Room

Group Study Rooms (Room 314, 316, 318, 429, 445, 545, 547, 714 and 814) aim to provide students and staff space for group discussion within the library upon booking. Each person can only book a room once a day. Booking is limited to a maximum of 3 hours for students and 6 hours for staff. Room booking can be done via Library Room Booking System and can be booked up to 7 days in advance.

Library Training Room 303 has 1 computer, 1 projector and 1 moveable whiteboard, with a capacity of 48 people. Reservation can be made via XJTLU Room Booking system by staff for teaching activities.

3.7 Training

Library information literacy education schedule can be found in LibCal (library calendar for training and student activities) at <http://libcal.lib.xjtlu.edu.cn>. For further queries and suggestions, please email libtraining@xjtlu.edu.cn.

Learning in Virtual Environment (LiVE) is the Library's e-learning platform which provides information and research skills online trainings. You can login with your university account and take different modules in LiVE to learn about information searching, referencing, digital library usage, etc.

3.8 Publishing books

XJTLU has established XJTLU IMPRINT, an academic publisher that is a sub-division of Liverpool University Press.

As a leading joint-venture university in China, XJTLU is ideally placed to become world-leading in intellectual exchange between China and the rest of the world. A central aim of the XJTLU IMPRINT is to support this mission and facilitate academic dialogue between China and the Anglophone world.

XJTU IMPRINT launches a Call for proposal for publications. The proposals of publications may include (but are not limited to):

- Original research monographs
- Edited volumes
- Journals
- Conference Proceedings

- Textbooks
- Translations of impactful Chinese academic works into English
- Translations of impactful English academic works into Chinese
- Bilingual articles

- Creative works, e.g. screenplays

All submissions will be subject to internal and external review.

XJTU IMPRINT will seek to prioritise work that either speaks to the theme of intercultural exchange, that widens the reach of research in the areas of Humanities, Sciences, Technologies, and Social Sciences by being presented in a bilingual format, or that takes an innovative pedagogical perspective appropriate to a global context.
